Rules that Protect Lives

Rules to follow when riding a bicycle with a child

As a general rule, riding a standard bicycle with two people on it is prohibited. It is allowed, however, only when a person sixteen years of age or older is operating a bicycle which is installed with a child seat and a child up to the age of commencing elementary school rides as a passenger.

Configurations that are allowed (examples)

One child rides as a passenger on a child seat

One child is carried securely on the rider's back with a strap, etc.

Note: Do not carry a child in front of you using
